WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

GEN. WADE HAMPTON'S SPEECH.

THE TRUE POSITION OF CONSERVATIVES AND DEMOCRATS.

Peace and Union---Not Revolution and War.

The following extract of a speech delivered at Columbia, S. C., by General Wade Hampton, while it meets fully the false charges made against himself, also sets forth the true purpose and design of the Conservatives and Democrats. Our aim is peace, and it is the aim of the entire party:

"I have said more to the people of New York than to any Southern audience. I told them that we believed we were right, but that we were willing to accord to others what we claimed for ourselves, viz: perfect sincerity in our convictions and unquestioned devotion to principle. I told the Northern people that we spoke with no double tongue, that we were earnest and truthful in our desire to support the Union and the Constitution, and that in that spirit we accepted the hand so freely extended to us by the great Democracy of the North. I told them that we wanted the Constitution restored; that we looked for no remedies in our platform; that we did not propose to incorporate into that instrument anything in the shape of a remedy, and we simply asked that this platform should declare these Reconstruction acts unconstitutional. Indeed, I had the honor to offer in that body a resolution providing for the arbitrament of this question by the Supreme Court, and had such a decision been rendered, there is not a man in the South who would not have cheerfully obeyed the law. We were all prepared to abide by it. Does this look like revolution? I declared that we wanted peace; but instead of receiving peace, we have not only been charged with being revolutionary, but there seems to have been a persistent effort to drag us into some outrage or outbreak which would afford them political capital at our expense. I have recently seen what purports to be a quotation from a speech made in Charleston, not to an ordinary meeting, but in acknowledgment of a compliment—a serenade given to me by my soldiers. I am told that in the New York Herald it is published that I said "the flag had been preserved, and I should one day unfold it and call around me the men who used to follow that banner on the field."—I need not tell you that this statement is in every respect false. On the contrary, when I spoke of the flag of the Confederacy, I remarked that it was furled forever, to be buried in the grave of our lost cause. I did make an allusion to another flag, which had been followed by many of the men standing around me. It was a flag that had been worked by the descendants of revolutionary patriots, and presented to us by the noble women of South Carolina, through the hands of our then chief magistrate; a flag which had floated amid the smoke of many a desperate battle field; which had been borne by my own hero son, and which enshrouded him when he was carried to the tomb. I told them that flag was resting with me; for I knew that they would be glad to hear tidings of a banner that had long been familiar to their eyes, and whose ample folds did not contain space enough on which to write the names of all the engagements in which it had floated in the front of battle. Because I told my old comrades that that flag of a single regiment had not been burned in the wreck of Columbia, these Radicals of the North basely perverted both language and sense for the purpose of producing political effect. Had they taken the pains to do so, they would have seen that I said that even that flag was furled forever, to be buried in the grave of our lost cause. I should not have noticed these gross misrepresentations had they not been brought to my notice in a direct manner by my friend from Marion; but since he has afforded me an opportunity of doing so, I use it not only to denounce these statements as false, but to reiterate here, as I do in every place, that I am fighting as earnestly in the interest of peace as I did in war. In saying this, I recognize all of the issues involved in this contest, and also recognize, to the fullest extent, the kindness extended to us at the North by those who had met us on a hundred battle-fields, and who, standing around a common altar which they wished once more to raise, extended in faith and kindness the right hand of friendship. I ask you what more can I do? Everywhere I have urged our people to come forward in the contest, and be as true soldiers in the cause of peace as they were in the cause of war. This is all I have done, and it is what I shall continue to do, notwithstanding the misrepresentations that may be given to the world. Whatever may be the character of the falsehoods circulated I intend to pursue an even course, and will not be provoked to say one word that is acrimonious or offensive. I know the object which the Radicals have in view, and I urge the people not to give way to prejudice or passion. Let them in patience endure the misfortunes they cannot control, avoid all conflict with the negroes, give no political capital to our enemies, trust to the Democratic party, fight this great struggle with peaceful agencies alone, and there is every reason to believe that we shall witness the restoration of the government, and the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States."

THE SPIRIT OF THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE.

The late grand Democratic Convention held in Raleigh, North Carolina, affords one of many illustrations of the true sentiments and character of the Southern people. It was an immense turnout of the population of both city and country, a notable feature of the assembly being delegations from several counties who encamped near the city with their wagons and other vehicles, in the old-fashioned style of the political gatherings twenty-five years ago. Ladies aided in the decoration of the hall where the Convention met, and in adorning the galleries with evergreens encircling elegant medallions bearing severally the pertinent, patriotic mottoes: Fidelity to the Constitution," Fidelity to the liberty of the citizen," "Fidelity to the rights of the States," "Fidelity to the Union" and "Fidelity to the principles of free government." A large and beautiful flag of our country canopied the stage, its brilliant folds gathered and looped on either side, supporting a pendulous crescent inscribed "Seymour and Blair."

A luminous transparency bore the following inscriptions:

"Ballots, not Bullets, is the Democratic war cry." "Let us have peace which is not war." "Under this flag the Democratic party will lead to Union and peace." "The subordination of the military to the civil power." "Liberty can only be secured by the supremacy of constitutional law." "A star for every State." "A State for every star."

The resolutions adopted by the Convention declare:

"That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of the late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful government; and we do proclaim that in asking recognition on terms of equality in the grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties, to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the Government."

An incident which occurred at this Convention showed the moderation and forbearance of these people. Riotous demonstrations for the purpose of mobbing a Conservative Democratic club in attendance were met by the most temperate and moderate demeanor, and when a Radical Senator tore down a picture of Seymour and Blair, which was posted in one of the hotels, no violence was elicited from the Conservative spectators of the act. We have given this prominence to the proceedings and demeanor of the Raleigh Convention, because it is a faithful index of the desire of the Southern people for conciliation and peace, and presents an admirable example of the wise and intelligent self-control with which they are endeavoring to foil a deliberate and murderous purpose to provoke them to outrage, in order to make party capital against them at the North.—Baltimore Sun.

A CARD.

SEVERAL months ago, I purchased the entire Dry Stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARMER & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones, advertising myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Business Directory. But as some persons seem, erroneously, to consider it a partnership, or to blend the interest of the former firm with my own, I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone, unless some partner should be taken hereafter. OUR RAIL ROAD SYSTEM.

Every North Carolinian, interested in the prosperity and growth of the State, must feel anxious for the energetic prosecution and completion of our Rail Road system.—Every Road demanded by the wants of the times, we hope to see carried forward, in all parts of the State, as the ability and means of the people and of the State can enable us to accomplish such a result. But, in order to complete success, every Road must be judiciously projected and planned, and must be constructed with rigid economy and skill.

Nor is there any good reason why one section or interest should be jealous of another. If our Railroads are properly planned and executed, there is room for all. If they are managed with skill and economy, and judiciously projected, the growth of the State and country, in population and wealth, will make the Roads profitable investments and make them contribute to the good of each other and of all.

That great design, which has occupied the thoughts of our people, since the days of President Caldwell,—the building of a Railroad from Morehead City to the Tennessee line,—must be carried forward. So, also, the connection of Fayetteville, by Railroad with the North Carolina Railroad, and also with Florence, in South Carolina. The North Western Railroad, from Greensboro' to Salem, and thence through the North Western Counties to the Virginia line, cannot be too highly commended. It has been long due to the people of that section.—Again, the connection between Tarboro' and Williamston, an important project to our people in that section, we hope to see prosecuted with vigor. Moreover, the new project to connect Charlotte with Atlanta, Ga., by an air line Road, we consider to be a capital idea, and one which promises great results. Of great importance, also, is the completion of the Wil., Char. & Rutherford Road, which is an enterprise of immense interest.

Last, though not least, there is no Railroad project, in which the people of Raleigh, and of the tier of counties through which the Road passes, are more vitally interested, than the connection of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, by means of the Chatham Railroad, by an air line Road, with Cheraw and Columbia, South Carolina. The project is one which we have long urged, as absolutely necessary to the great line of travel which passes through this city. Such a Road will bring Columbia, South Carolina, nearer to Raleigh, than Charlotte. It can be built more cheaply than any other Road now in progress, except the Road from Tarboro to Williamston. It promises to be equal to any in the State, in the certainty of its being a paying Road. And it will afford facilities to the people through whose section the Road passes, which they have long desired. Other Railroad interests in the State oppose this scheme, because it seems likely to interfere with their interests. But we think that such can only be the temporary effect. We are far from believing that any Road, which the public good demands, can really interfere with other interests. Objections have been urged to the large appropriations made for this Road.—This is a solid objection to any Road, if it be true. No room should be left for speculators, in building our Roads, at a time like this, to make exorbitant profits for contracts, by which the credit of the State may be jeoparded. The Roads, in which the State credit is involved, should be built as cheaply and as economically as if the money of individuals only were employed in their construction. We feel authorized to say, that, in the construction of this Road to Cheraw, no more of the credit of the State will be used than is absolutely necessary. We presume that the friends of this Road are anxious to build as cheaply as possible. The prime mover in this project has shown great ability in the skill and economy employed on the Road which he has managed, and we expect equal skill and ability in future from the same source.

But while we ardently desire to see all our Roads pushed forward, we do not abate a jot of the warning we have given to the General Assembly, and to the friends of progress and improvement, in reference to the protection of the State credit. The success of all our enterprizes depends upon maintaining the credit of the State, and the paying promptness and integrity of the people. We are too poor, vastly too poor, to leave any room for extravagance, waste or stealage. The carpet baggers are sinning us and upon us. We cannot trust them any longer than we have our eyes or fingers upon them. They are introducing among us the tricks, the espionage and the plunder and venality which are practiced in Northern Legislatures and in Congress. Our people should shun their demoralizing practices and fly in association. Let not our honest old North State be contaminated by them. The cunctim, log-rolling operation, both in the Convention and Legislature, may have been allowable in the estimation of some, because of the peculiar condition of things, but we cannot justify any resort to other than the most open, frank and honest course, in the accomplishment of any object. And hence, we expressed our disapproval of, and hostility to, any wholesale measures of extravagance and waste. The course of the Conservative and Democratic members of the Legislature, in opposing, on principle, every species of such waste, will be endorsed by our people, everywhere.

ARMS FOR HOLDEN'S PETS.

The New York World calls attention to the fact, that boxes had arrived at Wilmington, N. C., marked "Sharp's Carbines," and asks, "Are these for Holden's loil lambs?" We know nothing more of the matter, but it is very probable that the statement of the arrival of the arms is true.

We now inform the World, and other Northern journals, that while the bill to raise this special force, of not less than 6,000 men, to be selected by the Governor of the State, was under discussion in our Legislature, and one of the grounds of opposition to it was the large amount it would cost the State to arm and equip this force, it was replied by the carpet baggers and other advocates of the bill, in both Houses, that the arms would cost the State nothing, for that the Governors of New York, Massachusetts, and some other of the New England States, had promised to supply the arms out of the stores of those States. We respectfully ask the World to call attention to this matter.

We tell the World further, that there are many counties in this State, as was said by the Radical Senator, Mr. Wynne, from Franklin, was the case in his county, in which there are not five Radical whites, and, that, consequently, negroes alone will be selected and enrolled in such counties.—Such a state of things cannot exist without strife. In God's name, and in the name of peace, we beseech these Northern Governors to keep their arms and not send them to North Carolina.

Ever since the Legislature met, Stevens the chicken thief, and Wilson Cary, "de arkives ob grabbity," have been whining like curs and hounding the Radicals in the Legislature to give them the vacant seats in that body to which Col. Brown and Wm. Long, E-q., were fairly elected. Stevens finally made his point by mentioning the names of twelve Conservative votes that had no right to vote, and nine scallawag votes that were rejected, which ought to have been received. This, he contended, elected him by one vote. Accordingly the Legislature sent a man to this county to investigate the matter precisely as Stevens represented it and in no other way. He came and proceeded to examine the case, but ere he got half way through, he found that three of the rejected votes had been whipped for crime at the whipping post.—This settled the "chicken hash," and Mr. Respass or Trespass went back to Raleigh. "Let us have peace!"—Milton Chronicle.

The facts referred to by the Chronicle constitute a most disgraceful chapter in the legislation of the General Assembly. Every man concerned in it deserves the severest censure. The Senate, we are glad to say, proved to be too honest actually to admit Stevens, though the carpet baggers and others were anxious to do so. That body referred the matter back to the people, as the House should have done, but that was a stretch of fairness and decency of which it was incapable. Carey, the negro, was admitted by the House in the place of Mr. Long, without evidence or proof that he was the choice of the people, and after a purely ex parte investigation.—The people of Caswell, white and black, will handsomely rebuke this shameless proceeding.

THE GREAT MEETING IN GREENSBORO.—The Patriot and Times contains a glowing account of the late immense demonstration of Democrats and Conservatives in Greensboro. It was, in all respects, a fit sequel to the great Convention in Raleigh. The Times has the following complimentary notice of the two principal speakers on the occasion:

"Ralph Gorrell, Esq., then introduced to the audience Col. R. H. Cowan, of Wilmington, who was greeted with tremendous applause. Col. Cowan then addressed the assemblage, in a pointed and forcible speech—holding the people spell-bound for about one hour. We dare not attempt a report of the speech, if we had room, for we would dislike to mar its beauty. The speech was the best we have heard this campaign and was repeatedly cheered by the ladies as well as gentlemen. This was the Colonel's first appearance before the people of this section—yet he has endeared himself to us all and sustained his high reputation as a speaker and a gentleman of no ordinary intellect. Wilmington may well be proud of her noble son.

P. F. Duffy was next introduced, amidst lusty cheers. We have so often spoken of the eloquence and patriotism of this gentleman, that we deem it only necessary to remark that this speech was one of his happiest efforts."

THE WAR PARTY—A CASE IN POINT.—A correspondent, writing us from Cabarrus County, says:

"Grant says "Peace (!)"—the Rads. of Cabarrus say War. On yesterday, the Red String nominee for Sheriff, who was beaten by Allison Fink, and who, we fear, will be appointed by Holden, as the Sheriff is banned, brought war to his dinner table by beating his wife. He was bound over in the sum of $500 to keep the peace—the Court being composed of Holden's Squires. He said before the Court, that he would have the bond to pay, as he knew that the peace would not be kept!"

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

FRIDAY MORNING, Aug. 21, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 9 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, Senator from Davidson.

A message was received from the House, transmitting the following resolutions, viz:

Resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to furnish each member of the General Assembly ten copies of all acts passed at this session, bound in pamphlet form; passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

Resolution authorizing the printing of 10,000 copies of the brutum fulmen punishing bribery, coercion, &c., and instructing the Secretary of State to distribute them equally among all the election precincts of the State. On motion of Mr. Robbins, the yeas and nays were called and the resolution was adopted.

YEAS.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Davis, Eppes, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Rich, Richardson, Respass, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, White and Winstead—22.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Galloway, (negro) Hyman, (negro) Melcher, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins and Wilson—8.

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS

By Mr. Beasley: A bill to incorporate Beaver Dam Lodge, No. 276, of Free Masons, in the County of Union.

By Mr. Winstead: A resolution authorizing the burning of Confederate securities in the Treasurer's office. Adopted.

By Mr. Welker: A resolution instructing the Treasurer to pay J. W. Stevens, contestant of the Hon. Bedford Brown, of Caswell Co., per diem and mileage allowed members of the General Assembly, from the beginning to the end of the session.

By Mr. Barrow: A resolution instructing the Attorney General to give an opinion as to the legality of the action of the Joint Committee, in ordering the removal of the Supreme Court Library, in order to make room for the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and that further proceedings in reference to that removal be suspended, until such opinion shall be had in the premises. Adopted.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a bill to relieve Messrs. Durham and Money, of Johnston County, from paying tax on a stock of goods which was consumed by fire. On motion of Mr. Robbins, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

The following bills passed their third reading, viz: Bill to amend the Charter of the North Western North Carolina Railroad Company;

Bill to amend an act to provide for the qualification of certain officers recently elected;

Bill to amend an act to incorporate the Newbern Gas Light Company;

Bill for the relief of certain persons in Anson county, who have suffered by the destruction of Court Records, &c.;

Bill in relation to selling land under execution;

Bill concerning refunding bonds;

Bill to amend chap. 85, sec. 5, Revised Code;

Bill to amend the charter of the Mecklenburg Female College;

Bill to facilitate the settlement of the estates of deceased persons;

Bill in relation to the records of the late Supreme Court;

Bill providing for the Registration of voters:

Mr. Robbins moved to amend, so as to avoid the unnecessary expense of furnishing three boxes and three setts of Registration books for precincts, which have less than 300 voters. The amendment was lost:

AYES.—Messrs. Barnes, Melchor, Osborne, Purdie, Respass, Robbins, White and Wilson—8.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Davis, Eppes, negro, Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, negro, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Richardson, Sheffner, Sweet, Welker, Wynne and Winstead—26.

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Land, Mining and Lumber Company;

Bill to secure resident debtors the benefit of the Homestead Act;

Bill authorizing certain persons to practice Law in the Supreme Court.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to punish Bribery, Coercion, &c., was taken up and acted on by sections.

On motion of Mr. Osborne, the second section was amended by striking out "or any other person, in whose welfare such voter is, or is supposed to be, interested."

4th section: Mr. Osborne moved to amend by striking out "or otherwise injure, threaten, oppress or attempt to intimidate." The motion was lost, and, on the adoption of the 4th section, Messrs. Barnes, Melchor, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins and Wilson voted in the negative.

The previous question was called on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th sections, by Mr. Rich, thereby cutting off debate.

The 7th section was amended by striking out the word "fail" in the second line and inserting "refuse."

Mr. Robbins offered to amend as follows: "All acts coming in conflict with this act shall be repealed." The substitute was voted down, (which shows that the Radicals have no confidence in the efficiency of this ridiculous bill.)

The bill, as amended, passed its third reading, as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Cook, Davis, Eppes, negro, Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, negro, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Richardson, Respass, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, White, Wynne and Winstead—21.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Melchor, Osborne, Perdie, Robbins and Wilson—6.

Mr. Osborne introduced a resolution complimentary of the President of the Senate, for the able and impartial manner in which he had discharged his duties.

Messrs. Osborne and Robbins and Lassiter addressed the Senate in support of the resolutions and in commendation of the President.

The President, having retired during their proceedings, subsequently returned, and addressed the Senate as follows:

SENATORS.—I am grateful to you, for the courteous and complimentary resolution you have adopted expressive of your approbation of the manner in which I have discharged the duties of this chair. I most cordially return you my thanks for the ready support you have invariably given me. You have made my duties light and my task an easy and pleasant one indeed.—I claim no exemption from human infirmity and I well know that I have committed many errors which you have generously overlooked and magnanimously forgiven—I however do claim to have striven, sedulously, to do my duty impartially, and with a proper regard to the rights and due respect for the feelings of every Senator on this floor. If I have allowed party influences to govern me in any particular, I can most conscientiously say that I am not aware of it. How far I have succeeded in my efforts to do right, is sufficiently attested by your kind resolves. Our friendly relations, I am most happy to say, have not been marred by a single unpleasant occurrence. Your deportment towards each other and towards your presiding officer has been such as was to be expected from honorable Senators and from North Carolinians. My recollections of our intercourse will be forever cherished among the most pleasant reminiscences of my life. I part with you, my friends, with regret at reluctance and am only cheered up in this hour of gloom by the pleasant reflection that in separating from each other, we are soon to enjoy the bright smiles and be greeted by the happy faces and warm welcome of our loved ones at home; and that we shall, in a short time, grasp our confiding constituents by the hand and hear from them the cheering plaudit of "Well done, good and faithful servants."

To the various officers and employees of this body, I tender my acknowledgements for the fidelity and promptness with which they have discharged their several duties.

Thanking you again, Senators, for your kindness and marked courtesy, and wishing each one of you a safe arrival at your home, where, under the propitious smiles of a good Providence and in the bosom of your family you may enjoy a respite from your labors and nerve yourselves afresh for future service to your country, I bid you an affectionate adieu.

I now declare that this body will adjourn on Monday next, at 6 o'clock A. M., in conformity with the resolution heretofore adopted.

The Senate adjourned until the hour for the evening session.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Aug. 21, 1868.

At 9 o'clock, the House was called to order.

Both Prayer and the reading of the Journal were dispensed with.

A call of the House was had, and only 59 members answered to their names.

Messrs. Laflin, (c. b.) Seymour, (c. b.) Price, (negro,) Ferebee, and others, were arrested and brought before the House for absenting themselves.

After a good many "facetious" motions, the offending members were allowed to take their seats.

By Pearson: A resolution in favor of A. J. Summerlin, late Tax Collector for Wayne County. Under a suspension of the rules, the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Leary, (negro,) the resolution allowing the Clerks the same per diem as members, ($7,) was taken up and adopted.

Estes offered a resolution, allowing the Principal Clerk $150 for transcribing the Journal. He stated that the Clerk would be necessarily engaged for two weeks after the adjournment of the House and that some provision was customary. The resolution was adopted.

CALENDAR.

The bill to punish sedition, conspiracy and rebellion was taken up and passed its final reading.

The resolution allowing $1 per day more to Doorkeepers was next considered, and, after some discussion, adopted.

The bill in relation to the Railroads, in which the State holds an interest, was taken up and passed its second reading.

The resolution in favor of incoming Sheriffs was, on motion, laid on the table.

The bill regulating the hours of labor, (making ten hours a day's labor, unless by special contract,) passed its third reading.

The bill to amend the Charter of the Cheraw & Coal Fields R. R. Co., passed its final reading.

The report of the Committee on Claims, recommending that the Senate resolution, allowing the claims of Dr. Fisher and others, due from the Insane Asylum, be concurred in, was, on motion, agreed to.

The resolution relative to the State Penitentiary was adopted.

The resolution allowing the account of Paige & Co., Public Printers, was next taken up and passed its third reading. (What is the amount? The public want to know.)

The majority report of the Committee on Salaries and Fees of State officers was next considered. (The underground Reporter could not succeed in learning the provisions of this report, but it will be published in a few days.)

The adoption of the report was ably combated by Messrs. Argo, Durham, and other Conservatives on the floor, who opposed the exorbitant salaries granted, but it was finally adopted by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Ames, Cherry, (negro,) Cawthorn, (negro,) Dixon, Downing, Ellington, Foster, Forkner, (negro,) Gahagan, Hutchings, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Hoffman, Horney, Hayes, (negro,) Hinnant, Kinney, Kelly, of Moore, Long, of Richmond, Leary, (negro,) Laflin, Mayo, (negro,) Morris, (negro,) McCaulees, Moring, Peck, Pou, Price, Proctor, Pearson, Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, (negro,) Stilley, Simmons, Seymour, Sykes, (negro,) Sinclair, Short, Siegrist, Stanton, Vestal, Vest, Williamson, (negro,) Wiswall, and Waldrop.

NAYS.—Messrs. Argo, Allison, Armstrong, Boddie, Barnett, Candler, Durham, Davidson, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Grier, Justice, of Henderson, Long, of Chatham, Moore, Matheson, Mendenhall, Nicholson, Rhodes, Sweat, (negro,) Snipes, Shaver, Thompson, Whitley and Williams.

The bill concerning the Courts of Justice, and the mode of proceeding therein, passed its 3d reading.

The bill in relation to selling land under execution, passed its final reading.

The bill for the relief of persons who have suffered by the destruction of the Records of the County of Anson, passed its 3rd reading.

The bill providing for the employment of convicts in the erection of a Penitentiary, passed its last reading.

Mr. Argo offered a resolution, requesting the Secretary of State to forward ten copies of all laws enacted by this General Assembly to the different members. The resolution was adopted, under a suspension of the rules.

By Seymour: A bill to incorporate the Newbern Ferry Company. Seymour said that, at present, there were only two Ferries kept by private individuals, who could charge just such prices as they might choose.

This brought Morris (negro) to his feet. He said that this was granting a monopoly to certain monied men. It would prevent colored men from establishing ferries of their own. It was time, now, for the colored people to open their eyes, as persons, when they thought their best friends, were turning against them. (It seems that the proposed ferry will interfere with a ferry in which some colored man or men are interested.)

Harris, of Wake, (negro) took up the gauntlet, and opposed the bill. On his motion it was postponed until next November.

On motion of Laflin, the vote by which the bill to incorporate the Ridgeway Land and Immigration Co. was postponed, was reconsidered.

Hayes, (negro,) moved to strike out the words, "Land and Immigration," wherever it occurs. Carried.

Sweat, (negro,) denounced the whole bill. He said, in substance, that all these immigration schemes were nothing but means to supplant the colored man and drive him from the land, and he advised colored men, in view of their scarcity in the Western portion of the State, to be careful how they voted to lessen their majorities in the portion of the State, where they exceeded in numbers, now. If these immigration schemes were perfected and carried out, the labor of the colored man would not be needed, and he would be driven from the land.

Laflin said he was considered a Radical, and a very bitter partizan, too, but he was yet to learn that no one but a Radical Republican was to be allowed to do business in the State. He then proceeded to show the intent of the bill, and how Land Companies (though this was not one) would work for the benefit of the colored man. After some further debate, and slight amendment, the bill passed its third reading.

The bill in relation to bribery and coercion passed its third reading.

The resolution giving the Assistant Engrossing Clerk the same per diem as the Principal Clerk, was adopted.

The bill appropriating $110,000 for the support of the Insane Asylum, passed its third reading.

By Mr. Pou: A resolution allowing the Secretary of State to employ an extra Clerk, from the 1st of July to the 1st of March, at a salary of $100 per month.

Mr. Argo moved to amend, by inserting from the 28th day of August to the 28th day of March. Accepted.

Estes opposed the amendment.

Seymour offered a substitute for the whole. (The Reporter was unable to get it.)

Mr. Whitley was opposed to the whole matter. He said that to allow the Secretary to employ all the Clerks asked for, his office would cost the State about $5,000 more, and his fees would raise the sum to about $8,000. After some further consideration of the matter, it was postponed.

Mr. Durham offered a resolution of thanks to the Speaker for the manner in which he had presided over the House, and the resolution was adopted.

The Speaker returned his thanks.

Hayes, (negro,) offered a resolution, to allow the Governor an Aid, with the rank of Colonel, at a salary of $1,500 per annum. On motion of Mr. Durham, the resolution was laid on the table.

By Downing: A resolution authorizing the Secretary of State to have 10,000 copies of the bill to punish bribery and coercion of voters printed in the shape of hand-bills, and circulated through the State. The resolution was adopted.

By Pou: A resolution in favor of Durham and Monie, of Johnston County. Adopted.

Dixon, from the Committee on Claims, reported a resolution allowing claims against the State by certain parties. The resolution was adopted.

By Ames: A bill allowing the Sheriff of Lenoir until the 1st of Jan., 1869, to settle for taxes. Lost.

Laflin called up the bill regulating the fees of regular Pilots on the Cape Fear, but, after a warm discussion, he withdrew the bill.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

Obituary.

"Farewell, thou fair day, thou green earth, and ye skies,
Now bright with the gay setting sun!
Farewell, loves and friendships, ye dear tender ties,
My race of existence is run!"

Died, in the town of Beaufort, on the 18th inst., after a painful illness of several days' duration, JOEL H. DAVIS, Sr., in the 64th year of his age.

Mr. Davis was one of the old citizens of our town, of that class fast passing away. He was a devoted husband, an affectionate father, and a kind and generous friend. In his business relations, he was prompt, correct and honorable, and was successful in achieving the rewards of industry. At the time of his decease, he was Treasurer elect of Carteret County.

While a stricken and bereaved family mourn for him for whom their hearts beat warmly,—for him the joy of so many years, now buried in the ocean of the past, let them draw hope from that source of heavenly consolation that proclaims the "last end of the good man is peace." Sweet memories hallow this sacred hour; sweet affections gather around his tomb. 'Tis well. Here we have "no continuing City." He died in the Christian faith, with its high and noble hopes beaming from the skies, and, clinging with dying grasp to the Cross, he found beneath its shadow the golden sands of immortality. O.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 15th.

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of the youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological School has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical, ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges.—Number of students the past year, 434. SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Our enterprising friends, Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., Cotton Factors and General Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va., offer as a premium for the first 400 lb. Bale of new Cotton, shipped them from Wake, Franklin, Johnston, Chatham and Granville, one ton of Agricultural Lime. Well done for Portsmouth!

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD N. C.—The St. John's College Committee have appointed the Rev. J. L. Carroll, of Oxford, to visit the Lodges of this State to solicit contributions for the payment of the debt of the College.

Already the school has commenced and bids fair to be very full.

WE LEARN that, at the Methodist Church, at Rolesville, in this County, some fifty persons have made a profession of religion, within the last ten days.

SEVERELY BITTEN BY A DOG.—Mr. W. T. Bobbitt, a printer, who is on a visit from Kentucky to see his relatives in this State, was attacked by a large dog, owned by a Mr. Freeman, about seventeen miles from this city, on the Haywood road, a day or two since. Mr. B. was immediately rescued by the family, but not until his hand was frightfully lacerated by the infuriated brute.

GOOD TIDINGS FROM ROLESVILLE.—We learn that some of the leading Radicals in this portion of the county have united themselves with the Seymour and Blair Club, and that a number of colored men have become members. Judge Fowle was to have addressed the people there on yesterday.

MASS MEETINGS of the Democrats and Conservatives will be held (in Rockingham County,) at Thompsonville, Aug. 22.

Oak Ridge, " 26.
Madison, " 29.

P. F. Duffy, D. F. Caldwell, and others, will address the people. The Greensboro' Band is expected at some of the meetings.

TO OUR FRIENDS.—We have received several letters from our friends, requesting us to procure for them copies of the new Constitution, &c., and also copies of the new "Civil Procedure." We have applied at the Standard office, and, also, at the office of the Secretary of State, and have been told that they could not now be obtained.—Whether they are not printed or bound, or what else, we know not, but we call upon the "powers that be" to give the public notice where these things can be obtained, and the price charged for them. We will give the authorities a gratuitous advertisement of all such matters in the Sentinel, if they wish it, for the information of the good and true people of the State. Our friends will understand, from the above, the reason why they have not heard from us.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.—A friend, who sends us a club of ten subscribers from Harnett County, writes as follows: "I have come to the conclusion that there is no better plan of arousing our people to their duty, than by putting in their hands a good paper, advocating the Democratic platform and nominees."

HEAR THIS, IRISH AND GERMANS!—At a Grant and Colfax meeting in Greensboro', a few nights since, Stilley, the Radical member of the House of Representives, from the county of Beaufort, made a violent harangue, in the course of which he said that the Radicals "would not give one colored man for a half dozen Irish or a dozen Germans!"

"THE DEMOCRATS ARE BOUND BY NO POSITIONS OR PRINCIPLES."—This mutilation of a sentence, which, taken together, has a very different meaning, is sprinkled all over the Yankee paper, of yesterday. By a similar mutilation of Scripture, "There is no God"—leaving out what "the fool hath said in his heart." There is no smartness in this. It is only contemptible meanness. It would be very easy to prove, in the same disengenuous way, that Messrs. N. Paige & Co. ought to go out and hang themselves. For, "Judas went out and hanged himself," and "Go thou and do likewise," may be put together to mean that.

WARREN.—A friend writes us from Littleton:

"We have a fine Seymour and Blair Club at this place. We had a large and interesting meeting last Saturday. Many of the blacks joined us, and many more are ready to join."

"THE LAND WE LOVE" for September contains twelve articles.

The leading article, General Price's Report of his Missouri campaign in 1864, has never been published before, and is of stirring interest. The other prose articles are the Suez Canal, Mary Ashburton, Mr. Dickens and his Debt of Honor, Chief Justice Nash of North Carolina, and The Empress Eugenie.

The poetry is from Mrs. L. Virginia French, Miss J. M. Porter and Dr. J. D. Bruns, of New Orleans.

All the writers for this truly Southern magazine are of recognized ability.

JUDGE CHASE.—We learn, from the Washington Express, that Chief Justice Chase returned to the Capital, on Wednesday last, from his official visit to West Virginia, and that he expresses the opinion that the Democrats will carry the State by a large majority.

MILLARD FILLMORE is out for Seymour and Blair.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." What does he mean but that the "Empire is peace!"

THE LEGISLATURE.

In the House, on Thursday night, nothing of importance was done beyond the passage of the "Act to amend the Act (heretofore passed) 'to provide for the registration of voters.'" This supplement provides for the appointment of a Justice of the Peace as a Registrar for each election precinct, and, on or before the 20th. of October, of six Judges of election for each precinct. It is made the duty of the Judges to provide, at least, three separate ballot-boxes on the day of election, at their separate precincts, and as many more as they may think necessary. Any person who shall, with intent to commit fraud, vote at more than one box, or more than one time, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be imprisoned not less than six, nor more than twelve months, or fined not less than $100, nor more than $500. No registered voter shall be challenged on the day of election, but persons applying for registration may be challenged.

In the Senate, on Thursday night, a series of resolutions, introduced by Mr. Shoffner, defining certain discriminations and distinctions between the races, were, after considerable squirming and wriggling, adopted. All the Conservatives voted for them, and we shall hereafter take occasion to let the people know what Radicals voted against them.

In the House, on yesterday, the most extravagant and unusual extra allowances of the public money were made to the Clerks, Doorkeepers, &c., and the bill conferring the most outrageous and exorbitant salaries upon official pets was passed. The bill will be published, when enrolled and printed. It was stoutly resisted by the Conservatives of the body, who, in every instance, as well as this, have opposed the criminal prodigality with which the public funds have been squandered.

In the Senate, among other things, a resolution was actually offered, proposing to give Stevens, the contestant of the Hon. Bedford Brown's election, but who has not been declared entitled to a seat, per diem and mileage from the commencement of the session, (some $375,) although the case has been returned to the people of Caswell for decision! It remains to be seen whether this swindling piece of rascality will be sanctioned by the Senate. The expenses of the Legislature, of fifty-odd days, will be largely in excess of $100,000!

The ridiculous bill to prevent "Bribery and Coercion," which the Radicals, themselves, confess is an impotent and worthless fiasco, only intended to frighten fools, passed the Senate. Ten thousand copies were ordered to be printed, for the benefit of "N. Paige & Co."

It is doubted whether a quorum will be present in the House, to-day.

THE GAME OF OUR ENEMIES.

One of our Reporters was asked, by a Radical Senator, a day or two ago, "if it were true that the Sentinel would suspend, after the Legislature adjourned." He correctly replied, "By no means."

This is one of the many mean efforts now made to damage us and the cause. But the game is too transparent. For the comfort of our enemies, we say that at no period since the establishment of the Sentinel has it been so prosperous as at present. Our subscription list was never so large, and we are glad to say it is rapidly increasing every day. The Sentinel is one of the fixed institutions of the State, and, so far as human foresight can determine, it will continue to battle for the right, till Radicalism is prostrate in the dust, and, so far as we can make it an instrument of good, until justice, the Constitution and the Union shall triumph.

Let our enemies do their worst. We shall not follow them in the fetid purlieus of mendacity, hypocrisy and lying, but the truth shall find them out in their hiding places and drive and nail them to the wall.

For the Sentinel.

THE "MILITIA BILL" IN PERQUIMANS.

At a meeting of the "Seymour and Blair Club," held in Hertford, Perquimans county, on the 15th. inst., the following resolutions, expressing disapprobation and apprehension of the "Police bill," recently passed by the General Assembly of North Carolina, were unanimously adopted, and ordered to be spread upon the records of the Club, and a copy transmitted to the Sentinel, for publication:

Resolved, That we view with indignation and serious apprehension the recent legislation of the Radical party, in the General Assembly of North Carolina, whereby an armed force is threatened to be organized, as we believe, for the purpose of intimidating or coercing the citizens of North Carolina, in the free exercise of their right of suffrage; and we unhesitatingly denounce their action as unconstitutional, fraudulent, revolutionary and subversive of the first principles of liberty, peace and good order of society.

Resolved, That we hold it to be a right and duty of the citizen to protect himself against any and all attempts to deprive him, by fraud or violence, of the free and unrestrained exercise of any franchise to which he is legally and Constitutionally entitled; and we warn this insolent and factious party, that if they seek to use this force for the unlawful purpose which we contemplate, they will tax the patient endurance of our people to a degree which will involve disorder and may end in strife.

Resolved, That in furtherance of the cause which we advocate and the advancement of those principles of peace, harmony, liberty and Union which we profess, we hereby declare our firm determination to extend employment to, and otherwise aid, so far as may be in our power, such of the colored men as are disposed to act with us in the present campaign, in preference to those who are now arraying themselves in hostility to the best interest of us both, black and white, and against the good government and prosperity of our State.

MONEY ORDERS.

My attention having been recently called to several losses of small sums of money by mail, I would take this method of again calling the attention of the Public to the fact, that it is desirable for all parties, remitting money by mail, to buy money orders, where they can be obtained, and, where they cannot, all letters containing money should be registered.

Special Agent.

DISCUSSION IN CHATHAM—"COME ON" DEWEESE—JUDGE ALDEN—A GREAT DAY FOR THE DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES.

BEAR CREEK, CHATHAM Co.,
August 17th., 1868.

Gentlemen:—Thinking you would like to hear the news from Bear Creek, I propose to tell you what happened here on last Friday. We understood that Col. Hugh Guthrie, of Chapel Hill, would address the people of this part of the political vineyard, and we sent off for a speaker to reply to him. Friday morning came, and the people began to come in; and at last a carriage and five horses, with a white driver, came dashing up to the crowd, and who should dismount from it, do you think? There was Col. Guthrie, with his broad smiling face, and Col. Deweese, member to Congress from this District, and a Judge Alden, from Illinois. I began to look around to see if our speaker had come, and, walking down to the store house, I heard a voice familiar to my ear, and, to my great gratification, saw M. Q. Waddell sitting there surrounded by our friends.

Col. Guthrie proposed to Mr. Waddell to allow him to speak after he and Deweese had spoken, and Judge Alden after Mr. Waddell, and Waddell to rejoin, if he chose. This was agreed to, and Col. Guthrie opened with the most blathering, absurd, ridiculous speech I ever listened to. Deweese then took the stand, and for one hour exhibited himself as the Leviathan of fools. The most stupendous nonsense, the most idle jabberment, the most Jackanapical impertinence, any man ever was called upon to be inflicted with, was submitted to by the crowd.

Mr. Waddell's turn to speak was then announced and he took the stand. I cannot do justice to his speech. It was one of the most powerful, withering speeches I ever heard. The negroes present had run off when Mr. Waddell commenced, but, as he went on, they came back, and the whole crowd surrounded him, black and white, and, for two hours, he dealt Radicalism blows from which it will not recover soon. That part of his speech, in which he described the scene in the House of Representatives, when Deweese made such a dolt of himself, was beyond anything of the kind ever witnessed before. We all know Waddell's powers in ridicule, and his inimitable faculty in this produced the most convulsed laughter imaginable. There was no necessity to attempt an answer to Deweese's speech, for he made none, but he did open the eyes of the negroes there, when he repeated Deweese's speech in Congress, in which he said "there were four millions of people, South, with black skins, who would stand as a bulwark in any contest for Radicalism." "Now," said Mr. Waddell, "a bulwark, according to Webster's Dictionary, means a bastion, a rampart, a place capable of resisting cannon shot, a fortification, a means of defense, a screen, a shelter, means of protection, a brea work; and, therefore, my colored friends, you who voted for Col. Deweese to go to Congress, find that the first thing he proposes to do with you, is to put you as a breastwork in the next fight that comes off, while the white Radicals will stand behind; and the consequence is eve y one of you will be killed!"

Judge Alden, finding his friend Deweese in such hot water, walked up and commenced putting questions to Mr. Waddell; upon which, Waddell turned upon him and gave him the most terrible lambasting I ever heard. Among other things, he said, that however willing he might be to submit to our own citizens asking questions, he was not there to be catechised by two Carpet-baggers, from Illinois and Indiana, and that the Judge then had in his pocket the same one thousand dollar bill that he had been twisting around his finger, as a part of the money paid him to come down to Bear Creek to teach the people their duty!

After Mr. Waddell concluded, the Judge took the stand and attempted a reply, which was a lame effort. His whole speech was chiefly addressed to the negroes, in which he told them they had as much right to vote as Mr. Waddell, and exercise all the privileges of the country as freely as any white man, and if it was attempted to be taken from them, that they must fight for it. Just there, Mr. Waddell asked the Judge if he might ask him a question, to which he replied in the affirmative; and Waddell asked him if they allowed negroes to vote in Illinois? Whereupon the Judge choked down, and, after much swallowing and paleness of face, said candor required him to say that they did not allow negroes to vote in Illinois. Mr. Waddell then said, "Excuse me, sir, may I ask you another question?" The Judge assented. Mr. Waddell then said: "Did not the Illinois people, where you live, run all the negroes that attempted to emigrate there, after the surrender, out of the country with pistols and guns?" The Judge said he would answer that question presently, but never touched the subject again.

When he had finished, Mr. Waddell replied, and, in twenty minutes, so completely used up the Judge, that the whole crowd harnessed their horse and left.

It was a glorious day for us, I assure you. We had the right man in the right place, that time, at old Bear Creek, and the Radicals went off, saying, as I heard, to Colonel Guthrie, that the next time they had speaking in Chatham, they would let none but their own friends know it.

Yours, R. G. E.

EMIGRANT vs. CARPET-BAGGER.

The difference of meaning between "immigrant" and carpet-bagger" is as wide as the difference between one who arrives in a country to fix his residence there, and one who comes into it for the purpose of confiscating the silver spoons of its inhabitants.—The former is an "immigrant;" the latter, however, is only a partial definition of the "carpet-bagger."

The word is a compound of "carpet" and "bagger." Its meaning is the component of two ideas. The first half, "carpet," suggests the idea of a "carpet knight"—a bluviant swashbuckler of mighty valorousness in a drawing room, when there are no bellicose male persons present.

"Bag, n—a sack or pouch to put anything in." "Bag, v. a—to put into a bag." "Bagging n—the act of putting into bags."—"Bagger, n—one who performs the act of bagging."

From these standard definitions, the meaning of "carpet-bagger" will plainly appear. The "carpet-bagger" is a bloviant swashbuckler of mighty renown for something other than military service, who goes into the Southern States to bag the emoluments of office. His residence, if he have any, is in a Northern State. His taxable effects exist only in imagination. His wordly goods are contained in a small hand-sack, usually made of carpeting—a circumstance which is supposed to have suggested to the inventive American mind the word which so forcibly and accurately expresses the true character of this wandering political Micawber—this vagrant demagogue in quest of spoils. There is no other word in the English language which will express the truth, with all its nice shades of meaning, so correctly and so well. There is no name for the combination of ideas which an office-holder in the South involves, but the name "carpet-bagger."—Chicago Times.

STATE NEWS.

The regular publication of the Fayetteville Eagle (the successor of the News) has been commenced under the auspices of the M. J. McSween Co., Publishers and Proprietors. Mr. McSween has exclusive charge of the Editorial department, and gives promise of very able and efficient service. A Semi-Weekly is shortly to be issued. We wish the Eagle all success.

The Journal of Commerce, speaking of the appointment, by the man "who writes himself Governor," of A. S. Seymour (carpet bagger) for Judge of the Criminal Court of Craven, says:

"We shall see a Judge who will put both hands in his pockets, lean his head on his shoulder, put on his glass eyes, and deliver himself of as much of the law as he knows, in a style peculiar to himself."

The Wilmington Star intimates that about forty scallawags and carpet baggers are aspiring to Congressional honors, in the Third District. Of the forty, it says that "the following may be regarded as most prominent, viz: George Zachariah French, T. Androscoggin Byrnes, O. Squeezlefunker Hayes, Allan Bureau Rutherford, Dr. B. R. F. & A. L. Thomas and Oliver Twist Dockery." It adds:

"Our neighbor, French, and the devil's neighbor, Byrnes, appear to be doing the hardest work. In fact, it is feared by those who have contracted with the French Land Agency to dispose of their fertile fields, that their interests will suffer hugely if George don't quit his "politicks." We are not sure even that the "catalogue" has yet been "issued." George Zed is said to have the "dead wood" on his rivals in the counties of New Hanover, Brunswick, Bladen and Columbus. This is a good start; but then we hear that Byrnes is as busy as a tick in a tar barrel. "They say" he is telling lots of bad anecdotes and dealing oceans of worse whiskey amongst the leading men who visit Raleigh from this 'Deestrict.'"

The Norfolk Journal is responsible for the following:

"A most ridiculous affair occurred last week in Williamston, N. C., showing how Holden's government works.

A warrant had been obtained against a negro who had robbed a boy of a trifling amount, and was put into the hands of a negro constable to execute, who went in pursuit of the criminal with a posse of about fifty negroes at his back. When they came up with him, the constable was afraid to arrest him, but shook the warrant at him, taking care to keep at a safe distance. The fellow snatched the warrant out of his hands, and ran off, waving the law billet over his head in defiance.

He was subsequently arrested, and sent to Washington jail to await trial.

That is how it works; negroes have neither the intelligence nor the courage to act as officers: Holden, Howard, &c., to the contrary notwithstanding."

EXTRACT from a letter to the Editors, dated

LENOIR, CALDWELL Co., Aug. 18, 1868.

"I am anxious to see the circulation of your excellent paper widely extended in the West.

The people need information—they should be induced to read for themselves. I feel delighted with the prospect ahead—there is a brighter day dawning—the people are moving throughout the nation, in favor of their liberties and rights; their voice is invincible. The doom of Radicalism is fixed. The mighty upheaving of the people will expel them from power.

With an abundant crop (as now indicated) and the overthrow of Radicalism, we could feel like rejoicing in the happy hopes of peace and prosperity."

From the Charlotte Times.

TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF MECKLENBURG.

I am one of your number. From a sense of duty I became a Democrat. I wish to appeal to you not because I wish you to join my party, but because I see that you are in danger. Wicked white men—mean white men, that are skinning you every day and intend to take the whole hide off, have already made you believe a hundred lies, and they are making you believe them now. They will get all they can out of you and then turn you over to the mercy of the white people that you are now turning your backs upon. You are freemen, indeed, when you DARE NOT think, or speak, or act, except just as your white Radical masters order you to do! You are obliged to vote for them and not even for your own color! They say Conservatives and Democrats want to make you slaves again. If they did, these men could not, and WOULD not, if they could, prevent it. They did not make you free and can't keep you free. You just know the respectable white people of the South don't want to make us slaves again and could not if they wanted to. I was a slave—am now free. I expect to die free; but I want to be respected by the decent white people. As it is clear they intend to rule, say what we may, it would be well to make them our friends. The colored people had better take warning in time and show that they have some sense.

I write this of my own accord, as of my own accord I joined the Democratic party and intend to continue in it.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—AN IMPORTANT ORDER FROM THE WAR DEPARTMENT—THE SOUTHERN MILITIA.

WASHINGTON, Aug 21, P. M.

A circular letter, issued from the War Department, includes the following extracts from the Army Appropriation Bill, passed at the last session of Congress:

"Be it enacted, that all militia forces now organized, or in service, in either of the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas, be forthwith disbanded, and that the further organization, arming or calling into service the said military force, or any part thereof, is hereby PROHIBITED, under any circumstances whatever, until the same shall be authorized by Congress."

The publication of this extract is intended as an explanation of the refusal to Secretary Schofield to furnish arms to the militia of the Southern States, on application of the Governors, and for the information of officers of the Army, now on duty in the South.

There are over four thousand vacant offices under the TAX Bill.

Alluding to the militia in the Southern States, the New York Times (Radical) says, editorially:

"The case is made a good deal plainer by the extract from the law, which the Secretary of War introduces into his order.

By one of those unfortunate blunders which have marred the progress of reconstruction at almost every stage, the South is literally without a militia. Not only have the local governments no arms for its use, but the supplying of arms by the War Department is forbidden by a clause, which passed under different circumstances, but is yet unrepealed. On the statute book is a provision which restrains the War Department from arming the militia. Whatever the emergency, the reconstructed States are paralyzed by an order which nothing less than the action of Congress can set aside."

FROM ALABAMA—HON. W. B. JONES, ELECTOR FOR GRANT, AND HON. THOS. MASTERSON, MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE, OUT FOR SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 21, P. M.

Hon. W. B. Jones, Elector for Grant in the 4th Congressional District, has taken the stump for Seymour and Blair. He writes a letter, throwing up the Electorship.

Hon. Thos. Masterson, Representative from Lawrence county in the Legislature, has abandoned Grant and Colfax, and declares his intention to support Seymour and Blair.

The following card is published by the Radical organ of this city:

"In consequence of the want of patronage sufficient to meet the daily expenses of the office, I am compelled to suspend the publication of the "State Senator." Since the re-establishment of the paper, in this city, going on two years, I have sustained the publication from my own private means. This I cannot do any longer. I must abandon the business and go into some pursuit that will at least furnish sufficient income to meet the outlay.

(Signed) JOHN H. HARDY."

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and prospective dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premiums charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate

Example.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays $25.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $125.50, his policy will be good for $1,215.50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES
OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

57,000 Members, and constantly Increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur UNDER OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys draws from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the —— Club of —— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States, the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the object and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the state.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board) when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board Only.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
